Excerpt from The Elements of Mercantile Law As I have stated before, I have not attempted any original research, thinking my duty to the reader to be better performed if I made statements only on the authority of recognized writers. My indebtedness to these will be apparent, and I have referred to so great a number that it would be inadvisable to mention them here. I may state, however, that on all points connected with Contracts generally I have steadily followed the opinions of, and have referred constantly to that great work, Benjamin on Sales and I have much used Lord Justice Lindley's work on Partnership, and Maude and Pollock on Shipping. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts (1) We have not used OCR (Optical Character Recognition), as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos. (2) In books where there are images such as portraits, maps, sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images, so they represent accurately the original artefact. Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts, we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy.
